

I am a diligent, responsible, and eager-to-learn fresh graduate at RMIT University, majoring in Tourism and Hospitality Management. During my work and studies, my communication, teamwork, problem-solving, and customer service skills have been leveraged through different projects and events that I enrolled in. I am now seeking for opportunities to gain experience in the field of administration and customer care within the education sector. With my skills and dedication, I am passionate about enhancing the organization's growth and maintaining strong relationship with students and stakeholders to contribute to the organization's success.
